Efficient Engines. Effective Anywhere.

The Kia Picanto offers highly reliable gasoline engine that are designed to be highly efficient both in terms of performance and CO₂ emissions, so they are perfectly suited to meeting city regulations as well as exceeding your expectations on the open road.

POWERTRAIN

Manual Transmission

The Picanto's 5-speed manual transmission is more than just a highly efficient gear shift. It has been specifically optimized to give a higher torque and a longer gear ratio, which means the 1.0 model not only offers a quicker acceleration and top speed, it also makes gear changing super smooth and much more responsive. The result is a more pleasurable driving experience for you and your passengers as you move seamlessly between gears, whether you're in the city or on the open road.

Automatic Transmission with Manual Mode (AMT)

AMT (automated manual transmission) is an exciting, new and easy way to drive, and works just like any other automatic transmission – except when you fancy some old school “hands-on gear changing” fun you can switch to manual mode. When you're in manual mode, there's no clutch to worry about, thanks to the simple shift mechanism. What's more, AMT comes with a creep function, allowing you to move slowly by releasing the brake pedal, very useful in city traffic. In its heart there is manual gearbox layout that is automated by an electric clutch, which turns it to an automated gearbox with important fuel efficiency improvements versus the previous automatic transmission.

ISG (Idle Stop & Go)

ISG technology comes as standard on all Picanto models and is designed to reduce fuel consumption by shutting down the engine when the vehicle is at a standstill.

Advanced High-Strength Steel and hot-stamped steel (AHSS)

The new Picanto uses more than 44% Advanced High Strength Steel (AHSS), as well as hot-stamped components in the core stress areas. This greatly improves average body tensile strength and rigidity – enhancing cabin protection and improving dynamic performance.

SAFETY AND ASSISTANCE

The Kia Picanto is serious about keeping you protected. With advanced active safety features and rigorous attention to detail, it's designed and built to safeguard you and your passengers at all times, so that you can enjoy each and every ride, safe in the knowledge that you are being looked after.

Hill-start Assist Control (HAC)

When at a standstill on an incline, HAC prevents you from rolling backwards. It gently applies the brakes from the time you lift your foot from the brake pedal, giving you a moment to switch your foot smoothly to the accelerator.

Electronic Stability Control (ESC)

ESC ensures optimal braking performance and directional control. It automatically delivers the right amount of braking force to each wheel, based on an evaluation of engine torque and driving conditions.

TPMS (Tyre Pressure Monitoring System)

TPMS alerts you when a tyre needs pressure adjustment, by displaying the information on the cluster screen.

Front/side/curtain/knee airbags

To help protect occupants and potentially reduce injuries in the event of a collision, the new Picanto offers driver and front passenger airbags, two front-side airbags, two side-curtain airbags, and an optional driver's knee airbag.
